

Real Estate Funds

As an investor in real estate, you weigh risk and flexibility. You watch global markets. You seek the precise structure and deal terms you need to succeed. The real estate fund lawyers at Hogan Lovells help investment fund sponsors, investors, and other clients. We advise on structure and formation. REITs. Tax. Planning. Management. Financing. Securities. ERISA issues.

Our multidisciplinary team helps fund clients navigate real estate asset acquisitions and dispositions. The purchase and sale of properties. Real estate funds have global needs. With our team behind you, the right strategy and the right implementation can be a reality — no matter where you invest.

Representative experience

We advised Threadneedle Property Investments on the launch of Low Carbon Workplace Fund, a novel green real estate fund.

Advised BlackRock Investment Management on groundbreaking merger between BlackRock UK Property Fund and RREEF's UK Property Funds to create the UK's largest property unit trust.

We advised the JBG Companies in a US$600m formation of a private real estate investment fund (Fund VI).

We advised Hermes Investment Management on the launch of HUH US Real Estate Income Fund, a US$300m fund focused on US East Coast real estate.

Latest thinking and events

Contacts

J. Warren Gorrell, Jr.,
Washington, D.C.

Nicholas Holman,
London

David A. Winter,
Washington, D.C.

Practices

Investment Funds

Real Estate Finance

Real Estate

Industries

Real Estate

Press Releases

Hogan Lovells continues expansion of Australian practice with the addition of corporate funds partner in Sydney

Hogan Lovells Publications

Brexit: potential consequences of Brexit on key legislations affecting real estate