Partner

Paris

Biography

Ludovic Geneston is a partner in the tax department.

He advises a wide range of multinational groups, investment funds and financial institutions mainly on the tax-related aspects of domestic and cross-border public and private mergers, acquisitions and reorganisations, leveraged buy-outs, and financings.

Ludovic has also developed extensive experience in the energy and infrastructure fields, as well as in the tax structuring aspects of real estate transactions (including for SIICs, OPCIs and other real estate funds).

Ludovic joined the firm as a partner in 2018, after having spent successively 12 years in a leading international law firm.
