

Jenny Steven

Director - Hogan Lovells Financial Services
Regulatory Consulting
London

Biography

Jenny is a Director in the Financial Services Regulatory Consulting Service which works with our financial services team to deliver a range of regulatory compliance projects from initial authorization and set up to large regulatory review or change programs.

Over the last 10 years Jenny has built a strong reputation for providing practical advice, and finding creative solutions for clients within the sector and leverages her experience from working in-house for a large banking institution and a high growth international start-up. During this time she has helped firms launch new products, establish new operations, carry out compliance audits of their existing business and engage with regulators on a wide range of contentious and non-contentious issues.

Jenny frequently works with colleagues across the financial services team to help some of the UK's most exciting start-up and growth FinTech companies deal with a variety of regulatory compliance issues.
